

Media mergers are not about a responsible and free press, and thus are not favorable for true democracy. They simply allow a few people to accumulate more wealth and power. Please don't sell freedom to the highest bidder.